

Deluxe 100-Unit Motel May Affect Auditorium Plan

A deluxe 100-unit motel to be constructed in Twin Falls can have a direct bearing on plans for the Twin Falls Civic Auditorium and Convention Center when motel plans are announced in the near future, says William Grange, secretary-manager of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce. The big motel includes plans for a banquet room with seating capacity of 750 persons, Grange reports. In addition, motel officials have offered to donate a three-acre site adjacent to the motel for construction of the auditorium-convention center, according to Grange. The offer is being studied.

Candidates For Governor Go to School

DENVER, Aug. 20 (AP)—Several GOP gubernatorial candidates from Western states met behind closed doors today with five incumbent Republican governors to learn how to win their state's elections in November. The "school for candidates" got under way yesterday after a joint press conference with the governors who are presiding over the sessions—Mark Hatfield of Oregon, John Love of Colorado, Clifford Hansen of Wyoming, Robert Boyle of Idaho, John Anderson of Kansas arrived later in the day. Much of the press conference was spent in discussing the GOP presidential nominee, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona. The governors predicted that Goldwater would carry the West in the coming presidential election.

Oregon Gov. Mark Hatfield told reporters he believed that Sen. Goldwater plainly had renounced all extremist groups, including the John Birch society. He said the GOP standard bearer had renounced the Birchers by renouncing the Birchers and leader, Robert Welch. Hatfield said it was impossible to separate Welch from the John Birch society "because of the way it is set up." The Oregon chief executive said Welch was a dictator and any attack on Welch was an attack on the entire society.

Burley Has Parade, Jerome Barbecue Set

A grand parade highlighted the second day of the Cassia county fair Thursday morning while the Jerome fair officially opens with a free barbecue at 5:30 p.m. More than 8,000 persons are expected to the annual event which kicks off the three-day Jerome event. At the style show at Jerome Wednesday night, directed by Mrs. Stevon Goodwin, Sue Pasley, Hazelton, was named outstanding model of the show. Narrator was Sharon Johnson and Pamela Knaworm, Hazelton, was top senior model. Norma Young, Jerome, top intermediate model and Barbara Fuller, also Jerome, top junior model.

"Y" Building Now Is Open In Twin Falls

The YW-YMCA in Twin Falls is now operating in its new building, 1111 Elizabeth boulevard, across from the Jaycee ballpark.

Richard Conner, YMCA director, said the official open house and dedication will be held Sept. 7. Construction on the $165,000 building has been completed by the J. A. Clawson Construction company, contractor.

The new structure, having over 9,000 square feet of space, will be used for more social, educational, cultural and religious activities, Conner said. Some physical activities, such as table tennis and tumbling, will be conducted in a multi-purpose room. Complete furnishings have not been received yet, according to Conner.

He said the building will be available for groups to hold meetings and socials. A feature of the building is a chapel, equipped with a lectern, an altar, organ and a choir which will accommodate about 40 persons.

The new home of the youth organizations also has facilities for dancing, a nursery and two classrooms. Conner said plans are being made for some new activities this fall. Being considered are a creative drama class for boys and girls, a tumbling program and a winter indoor golf clinic for men.

Fisheries Experts of Nine Western States Hold Meet

Members from state and federal fisheries, private and commercial shippers and breeders from nine western states met at Hansen research station Thursday to discuss the fish problems of the West.

William Alvord, superintendent of fisheries in Montana, is serving as informal chairman of the meeting, which was called to "promote better quality egg production and transportation in the West."

SKELTON OF THIS small shed is all that remains after it was razed by fire about 3 p.m. Wednesday. Three fire trucks and 17 firemen from the Twin Falls fire department fought the blaze which destroyed two furnished apartments at 535 Second avenue west and caused considerable damage to the roof of a neighboring house. The fire was thought to have started in a garage, which is located in back of the apartment. (Times-News photo)

Blaze Destroys Two Apartments in T.F.

Twin Falls firemen Thursday were investigating a fire which destroyed two furnished apartments at 535 Second avenue west Wednesday afternoon and caused considerable damage to the roof of a neighboring house. The department reported receiving a call at 2:44 p.m., when trucks arrived at the scene the fire was blazing furiously in buildings owned by G. A. Siren. The blaze is believed to have started in a garage behind the apartments. Fire department officials reported Thursday they still are investigating and have not set an estimated damage total. Cause of the fire is not known.

Reapportionment Case Delay Is Sought

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen today held fast to his plan to delay court-ordered reapportionment of state legislatures.

His comments apparently wrote off any chance for senate passage of a tougher house bill denying federal courts the right even to consider such cases. The house, on a roll call vote of 218 to 175 last night, approved a bill which would forbid the supreme court and lesser federal courts from ruling on cases involving the reapportionment of state legislatures.

Flowers were entered Thursday at the Burley fair and the first rodeo performances are slated for Thursday night at both Burley and Jerome.

Dilettante Group Picks South Pacific

"South Pacific" has been chosen as the 1965 production of the Dilettante Group of Magic Valley, Inc., by the organization's board of directors.

The show is adapted from James A. Michener's Pulitzer prize winning novel "Tales of the South Pacific." "South Pacific" opened on Broadway in 1949 and ran for 1,925 performances until the closing in 1955. It also had a long, profitable run as a movie.

If Paul Kline, Duhl, will direct the production, with Del Blaugher, Twin Falls, as musical director and Phillip Keeler, Salt Lake City, as choreographer. Auditions for roles are scheduled for Sept. 13 and 14 at O'Leary junior high school, Twin Falls, beginning at 8 p.m. both days.

Performances for the show have been set for March 12, 13, and 14 and 18, 19 and 20.

The music for the show was written by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein and the book by Oscar Hammerstein II and Joshua Logan. The story takes place during World War II on islands in the southern Pacific ocean.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—More than 450 bank and utility members union members asked yesterday to join a suit which seeks to deny Teamsters President James R. Hoffa union funds for his legal defense fees.

Fire Crews Subdue Range Fires in Northern Nevada

ELKO, Aug. 20 (AP)—Bone-weary professional firefighters prepared to go home today after subduing Nevada's worst range fires. Behind them, they leave more than 350,000 acres of charred rangeland. Much of it was valuable to northern Nevada stockmen for grazing their cattle. A Boise, pilot was killed when his plane crashed Sunday after bringing a fire crew to Elko, and two Elko county ranchers were seriously burned trying to stop a blaze.

Winter Here? Snow Hits Vacationland

Temperatures dipped to 24 degrees at Ketchum and Sun Valley Wednesday night and the first skiff of snow was reported on Galena summit Wednesday morning. While flowers, tomatoes and beans were nipped by the frost, Hailey residents reported Thursday they felt it was not cold enough to permanently damage the plants. Water was frozen in the garden hoses Thursday morning at Hailey, where the forest service reported 34 degrees. At Ketchum, the forest service office listed the low temperature at 24, while at North Fork store it was 26 degrees, according to Mrs. Jack Helmsch. At noon Thursday it was 31 degrees at the store.

The first snow of the season was seen on the Galena summit Wednesday. At Heaver crest summit, in Sawtooth valley, Robert Kirch and Dean Moore said there were two inches of snow Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Sandy Brooks, who works at the Sawtooth valley ranger station, said it was 28 degrees at the station Thursday morning. At Cannell, Elmer Byington reported it was 22 degrees at 5:30 a.m. Thursday on his ranch. Mrs. Leonard Knight, who lives on the east fork of Big Wood river, in the Triumph mine area, and Byington both reported tips of the hay were black, but they believed it was not seriously damaged.

At Fairfield, the forest service reported an official low of 24, but Elmer Bennett said it was 34 at his ranch west of Hill City and 28 degrees was reported at the Harrison farm at Hill City. No damage was reported to gardens or crops in the county area, according to the county agent.

Chicago Area Has Peace After Riots

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 (AP)—Peace returned today to the troubled streets of south suburban Dixmoor, where two nights of Negro rioting left nearly 80 persons injured and more than 80 arrested.

Robert Kennedy To Declare His Candidacy Soon

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy will declare his candidacy for the U. S. senate seat from New York within the next few days, reliable sources said today.

They said the timing of Kennedy's announcement will depend on when New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner, the state's leading Democrat, issues a public endorsement of Kennedy's candidacy. This could come Friday.

Anti-Poverty Bill Signed by Johnson

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (UPI)—President Johnson cemented a major legislative victory by signing into law a $47.5 million dollar "war on poverty" bill which he said will stimulate a "new era of progress" for those who have not shared in America's prosperity.

"The days of the dole in this country are numbered," the President declared before using more than 50 pens to place his signature on the measure at a ceremony in the White House rose garden. In an obvious reply to Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater's charge that the poverty program is just an election year gimmick to win votes, Johnson asserted:

"This is not a cynical proposal to exploit the poor with the promise of a handout or a dole." Instead he said the program aims at getting unemployed youth "off the streets" and into job training, so they can look forward to a "productive life, not a wasted life."

"Every dollar spent will result in savings to the country and especially to local taxpayers in the cost of crime, welfare, health and police protection," Johnson said. A large number of house and senate members, mostly Democrats; cabinet members, including Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy; governors and mayors, including Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York; business and labor leaders, and Senator Shriver, whom Johnson will nominate to head the program.

"The American answer to poverty is not to make the poor more secure in their poverty but to help them reach down and help themselves out of the ruts of poverty," the President said. The American people and the American system are making history," Johnson asserted.

"Today, for the first time in the history of the human race, a great nation is willing to make, and make make, a commitment to eliminate poverty among our people. . . I firmly believe that as of this moment a new opportunity is dawning and a new era of progress is opening for us all."

Albion Firm Gets Federal Loan

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—A $110,000 loan to the Albion Telephone company of Idaho was approved Wednesday by the rural electrification association.

Sen. Frank Church and Rep. Ralph Harding, Idaho Democrats, said the sum will finance 18 miles of lines and will serve 55 new subscribers.

Officers Unable To Locate Boat,
2 Girls in Lake

HYAVDEN LAKE, Aug. 26—Knocton county deputies have been unable to locate a boat with two girls who were involved in two-craft collision Saturday night.

The bodies of Barbara Lee and Carol Thonton, both 17, of here, Paces, Wash., have not been found since the 13-foot outboard board collided with a 15-foot board motorboat.

The girls' boat, with much the hull torn away, was recovered, but officers dragging the lake have been unable to find the 15 horsepower inboard craft which sank.

Edwin Peterson, 15, and Stephen Lambert, 16, both Spokane, Wash., who were in the inboard, were pulled from the water shortly after the mishap.

Cab Stolen While Driver Is Arguing

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—It was almost like a Keystone comedy.

Cab driver Nathan Maurer stopped his taxi shortly before dawn yesterday at a Manhattan intersection to let out a woman passenger.

She jumped out but refused to pay the $2 fare. Maurer, angered, jumped out too.

While they argued, somebody stole Maurer's cab.

The cabby started after the thief on foot but soon gave up and returned to the intersection. The woman passenger was gone.

He then halted a passing police car and gave chase to the stolen cab. It was spotted and shots were fired by the two policemen in the patrol car. The cab thief stopped the auto and ran into Central Park, the two policemen after him.

One of the policemen turned around before he got into the park and spotted a youth stealing Maurer's money changer from the abandoned cab.

The youth, 19, was arrested and the money changer was recovered.

The woman passenger and the cab thief got away.

Awards Meet Set For Carey Fair

CAREY, Aug. 20—Winners for the 4-H and PFA judging contests held at the Blaine county fair will be presented at 3:30 p.m. Thursday in the Carey high school.

About 40 youths from the two groups will participate in the contest. The judging tour began with a class of Arabian horses at the Jay Birdie ranch, Holstein calves at the Boyd Blocking ranch and continued to a group of market hogs at Phillip Stahl's ranch, fat lambs at Ray Bird's farm and Hereford heifers at Gail Robert's ranch.

Leaders include Robert Day, Carey high school principal and PFA adviser; Earl Bennett, 4-H adviser; Ted Uhrig, Halley 4-H leader; Boyd Blocking, dairy club leader; and Norman Warren, county agent.

Hearing Survey Being Held For Schools in Twin Falls

Children in the first, third, fifth, seventh, ninth and 12th grades of Twin Falls schools will be offered hearing checks during the school year, a service provided by the Twin Falls Easter Seal center and 10 local volunteer workers.

The hearing survey was instituted recently by Mrs. Merle Pierce, director of the Easter Seal center and the volunteer workers have been trained by Mrs. Pierce. Speech and hearing authorities recommend that each school child's hearing be checked every other year and the survey has been set up for every other year in the school grading system.

The Jay-C-Ella hostesses at the Easter Seal center will explain the processes and the current program at an open house from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday at the Easter center, 1637 Laurel drive. All persons interested in the program and their children's hearing health are urged to attend this open house.

Rupert Plans for Yule Lighting

RUPERT, Aug. 20—The Christmas lighting program and reports from the city's recreational departments claimed the attention of members of the Rupert city council when they met Tuesday evening at the city office.

Lloyd Knodel and Clarence Birrer, members of the Chamber of Commerce Christmas street decoration committee, appeared before the council to ask the city to again match chamber funds for the improvement of the city's Christmas decorations.

The council agreed to provide $500 to match an equal amount put up by the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Elsie Burton reported on the recent completion of the Red Cross swimming program held this year at Neptune park. She said 973 individuals had participated in the lessons, which included some private lessons.

Of the total number 941 were class participation. She pointed out 60 per cent of those participating in the swimming program live outside the city limits. Plans are being made to accommodate some 1,200 persons in the 1955 swimming program.

Paul McCloy, director of the city recreation program for the summer, reported on the various activities to the council.

Also appearing at the meeting to discuss the condition of Memorial field and the need for improvement of the grounds was Camden Meyer, superintendent of schools in the county. It was decided the school and city would work together to get grass seeded on parts of the field.

McCloy also reported a meeting was being arranged to discuss the possibility of providing midday football in Rupert. Council members discussed ordinance 430 which provides for the creation of local street improvement in district No. 9. Streets improved would be Fifth street south, Walnut and Maple streets with curbing provided on East Fifth street only.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Reid

BUHL, Aug. 20—Funeral services for Mrs. Jeanne B. Reid were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Albertson Dickard chapel by the Rev. R. J. Kennedy, pastor of the Castleford Baptist church.

Mrs. William Watt served as soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Stanley Kern, organist.

Palbearers were Delbert Alexander, Carl Peterson, Henry Todd, Frank Todd, George Saljo and Chester Parlin.

Concluding rites were held at the Buhl cemetery.

Relative Dies

BUHL, Aug. 20—Funeral services for Mrs. Nettie Rogers, 80, Reno, were conducted Tuesday afternoon at Reno. Mrs. Rogers died Saturday of a short illness. She was the sister of Earl Parlinger, and aunt of Mrs. A. E. Maxwell, both Buhl.

She is survived by her husband, one son, Herman Bremekamp, Michigan, and two daughters, Mrs. Naomi Bernard and Mrs. Frances Clark, both Reno, and several grandchildren.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—On the theory that it is never too late to be outraged by an attempt to influence an office holder with bags of money, I should like to discuss, in anger, the case of Rep. Henry Gonzalez, D. Tex.

The citizen who has not been holed up in a cave will have read of Gonzalez' disclosure in the house that he was offered $27,000 worth of stock by a Texas banker and a Texas businessman, both of whom said they merely wanted to "do something nice" for him.

Andrew Tully Gonzalez reported he turned down both offers—one of $13,000 worth of stock and the other of $14,000 worth. Then he endorsed himself to the taxpayers by saying he did not "think it proper" for voters to know the stock.

"If the time has come when we ought to get medals for this," he noted, "we are in a pretty bad way."

Logical Site

In asking for an election to approve construction of the civic auditorium in the city park, directors of the auditorium association have revealed a financial dilemma and focused attention on the site problem. Funds are not adequate to purchase a site and still build a suitable auditorium. This being the case, it's high time to be logical and objective.

Primary goal of the project is to provide a suitable auditorium for the community. Although some may contend that's an over-simplification of the problem, it's the goal that must be kept in mind at all times. Auditorium directors are charged with constructing an auditorium, not winning some sort of popularity contest.

It's clear the building site has to be free. Without doubt this is one of the basic factors that pushed directors in the direction of the city park. There could have been other considerations, such as a desire to locate the auditorium centrally in the community. However, if finances dictate that a free site must be obtained, there's another available besides the city park. Twin Falls high school probably is the most logical location.

Original plans for the high school reserved space for an auditorium on the southeast corner of the 40-acre site. So far as is known, that space is still available. The pressure of building classrooms has precluded a school district move in the direction of an auditorium to complete the high school plant. Perhaps school boards also have been a little timid so far as an auditorium is concerned, realizing their first responsibility to the community is to provide sufficient and adequate classrooms.

Timidity has no place in the program to acquire a civic auditorium. Bold, decisive action is needed on the part of all concerned. If auditorium directors become convinced the high school provides the most logical site, then school board trustees should cooperate wholeheartedly in the program, even to the extent of asking approval of a bond issue to supplement funds, if necessary.

There are some powerful, logical reasons for building the auditorium at the high school. In addition to availability of a free site, the school already has a heating plant of sufficient capacity, or nearly so, to handle the auditorium. Here is an important economy in construction. Adequate parking facilities are provided already. The problem of maintenance is not nearly so great.

Last, but far from least, construction of the auditorium at the high school would guarantee full use by both students and adults. Careful scheduling would eliminate any possibility of conflicts because virtually all uses of an auditorium are known weeks—usually months—in advance.

There is one other alternative so far as a suitable site is concerned. There's always the chance that some civic or cultural minded citizen will offer to give the community a suitable site. However, if such an offer hasn't been forthcoming to date, that possibility must be considered rather remote. Also, one wonders if urban renewal has been considered.

It must be stated that site selection is a duty and responsibility of the board of directors of the Civic Auditorium association. Whatever site is selected cannot please absolutely everyone. Directors should approach the question logically, outlining all the considerations that dictated the decision. They will be criticized, but directors know when they accepted their assignment that it would be impossible to please everyone. If their decision on site does meet with approval of the majority, so much the better.

Quite definitely the site should be one that will serve the best interests of the community and a majority of residents.

For that reason, the Times-News supports wholeheartedly the high school site. Further, the Times-News, which expressed complete opposition yesterday to use of the city park as an auditorium site, believes the park site suggestion definitely is not in the best interests of either the community as a whole or even a majority of residents.

There has been some loose talk to the effect that some firms and individuals intend to default on pledges if auditorium decisions do not please them. There is no such thought on the part of either the Times-News or employees who donated or pledged more than $5,000, even should the auditorium be built in the city park.

Practically everyone is well aware that some solicitors voiced "promises" in the heat of the campaign for funds, promises they could not assure. But so long as the auditorium is the main goal, no one should consider defaulting.

WHY PROVE HONESTY? Ordinary folks who do not have 13 or 14 thousand dollars to bribe congressmen will agree with Gonzalez that his action lacked heroism. He acted as any officeholder should, but as many officeholders do not. It is nice to know that he proved his honesty and integrity, but honesty and integrity theoretically are taken for granted when a man is elected to office; he gets the job because the majority of his constituents feel they can trust him.

Still, there was a frightening badness to the approaches made by Gonzalez' two would-be benefactors. The banker said it would benefit both him and Gonzalez if the latter went on the board of directors. What the banker obviously meant was that as a member of the house banking and currency committee Gonzalez might be able to do his bank some favors. The businessman, a millionaire, said merely he figured Gonzalez could use the dough.

STRANGE BUSINESS ATTITUDE—What is frightening is that we are in what Gonzalez would call a "bad way" when businessmen take it for granted that members of congress can be bought. Neither of these Santa Clauses could see anything wrong in offering Gonzalez money, and the reason they did not is that businessmen get away with such murder all the time. These gifts usually are listed as "contributions" to help with office expenses, and the recipient is in implicit notice that the dough will stop coming in if he votes wrong too often.

Obviously, too, is the secrecy that shrouds these deals. Gonzalez' businessman said he'd deposit the $13,000 in a California bank, whereupon Gonzalez said he replied "if there is nothing wrong with this, why not do it openly in San Antonio and about it from the house?"

OTHERS WON'T TELL—Naturally, as Gonzalez noted, the businessman "had no answer" to this question. Attempts to bribe a public official would be shouted from the rooftops because that would mean the bribe taker, which is to influence the official by stealthy and illegal means.

For months now, the senate has skillfully avoided acting on legislation which would require its members to divulge the sources of their income. This foul dragging, of course, is in defense of the practitioners of bribery without whose pieces of silver many congressmen could not buy gas for their Cadillac. It is considered news when a lone legislator shows a couple of money peddlers to the door.

DEATH LABEL FOR FAGS

How can one extol the relaxing pleasures of a cigarette and the impurity-removing effectiveness of a filter and at the same time say in plain English that smoking may cause death from cancer and other diseases?

The people who write cigarette advertising copy and produce appealing commercials for television are an ingenious group, but they have never been challenged heretofore as they will be if the federal trade commission's new rule on labeling and advertising of cigarettes is put into effect. The rule may be fatal and each advertisement that produces the same, says the FTC, it will be extremely difficult to make possible death appear attractive.

Ordering the advertising industry would be only one of many segments of the American economy affected by a sharp curtailment of tobacco consumption, which, of course, is the purpose of the rule. Federal, state and local governments annually collect more than 3 billion dollars in excise taxes from tobacco. Tobacco is a major source of revenue for the state and local governments. It is the fifth largest cash crop in the country and farm income from its represents 8 per cent of the total of all crops. It ranks third in agricultural exports.

Should the rule go into effect, Uncle Sam might find himself with warehouses full of the product. For while one agency of government proposes to label one of the major forms of tobacco as a "death label," another has supported the growing of the crop since the beginning of farming. Tobacco is listed by the federal government as one of the basic crops, along with such necessities as wheat, corn and cotton. No great surprises have been assembled, as in some other commodities, because tobacco has been rightly controlled. But should the domestic crop be controlled, the commodity credit corporation may get stuck with a large supply. Maybe it can get rid of it in other countries under public law 400.

Ordering the manufacturers of a legal product to label it as a hazard to health is a ridiculous way of attacking a problem. Will makers of foods and beverages, which some doctors say may cause death if consumed too freely, be forced at some in a similar manner? It would seem logical.

How about automobiles, which kill thousands of Americans every year?

It would make more sense to ban cigarettes entirely and for the tobacco farmers to quit smoking. The tobacco industry is a multi-billion dollar industry. The most reasonable approach is to determine what factors in cigarettes are conducive to cancer, heart disease, emphysema, etc., and to remove them.

THE EVER-LONGER AUTO

We are appalled by a report from Detroit that the 1965 model automobiles will "reflect the belief by manufacturers that the demand for the compact car has largely run its course and that the average car wants a longer and more powerful auto."

If this is so, and we do not believe it is, the buyer will still have the option of purchasing a suitable-size foreign-made machine. If the new models from American manufacturers can blame themselves for stimulating the demand for the monster.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

THE MEANING OF PROFIT

Profit is one of the most abused and misunderstood terms in the free economy. The fact is, it is a necessary down the road to profit, yet it is vital to the continued welfare of this country as it is to all living things. Profit is the food that a business must have to survive.—Forest City (Ark.) Times-Herald.

AMERICA ENVIED

It is little wonder that the United States, with its high standard of living and freedom for all, is the envy of other nations. The fact is, it is continuing proof that of all economic systems free enterprise is by far the best.—Ork.

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE

Truth and untruthfulness are not always the same thing.—Dundalk (Ont.) Herald.

BEST EXERCISE

Pot Shots: Answering "I.M. Heavy," concerning the sitting-down exercise for weight reducing. I wonder if she means the one I was told years ago.

It was, "The best exercise for weight control is to lean to place the palms of both hands firmly on the edge of the table and push your chair back."

I should imagine this would be effective if practiced regularly.

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

Washington News

BY JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—(Rock 'n' roll and "I'm a Believer" in every chance we get.

This clearly seems the Johnson administration's policy against Sen. Barry Goldwater in the presidential campaign which, before it even starts, promises to be the roughest, toughest in memory. Goldwater didn't spare President Johnson's feelings when he called him a "phony" and some of his top aides have already set the pattern of not sparing Goldwater's.

One prime example: This week's performance by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara at the Democratic hearings on the platform they are trying to attack together.

Another example: Johnson's blaring attack on Goldwater, one of the first personal attacks he has made since becoming president.

Last week Goldwater criticized this country's defense program: "Under our present leadership, with its utter disregard for new weapons, our deliverable nuclear capacity may be cut down by 80 per cent in the next decade."

The defense department promptly fired back that this statement of the Republican presidential candidate was "without foundation." McNamara was "contrary to the facts" and was "totally false."

McNamara followed this up in his personal appearance before the platform committee.

"Let me assure you that our strategic forces are and will remain in the 1960's and will be sufficient to insure the destruction of both the Soviet Union and Communist China under the worst imaginable circumstances accompanying the outbreak of war," McNamara said.

"There should be no doubt about this in the mind of any one of our citizens."

The state department in the name of McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk issued a statement calling Goldwater's interpretation of Johnson's remarks "unjustified and irresponsible."

Last Saturday at his own news conference Johnson said he Goldwater's interpretation: "Loose charges on nuclear weapons without any shadow of justification by any candidate for office." Johnson said the president is a disinterested party to national security, a disinterested party, and as for that matter a great disservice to the entire world."

And the campaign hasn't even started.

Religion in America

BY LOUIS CASSELL

(United Press International)

The church building boom is slowing down.

A commerce department report forecasts expenditures for religious construction will drop below $1 billion this year for the first time since 1959.

The department's report says the 1964 church construction will total about 950 million, down six per cent from last year.

The downturn can be attributed to several factors. Churches have been on an unprecedented building spree for the past 15 years, and have largely overcome the deficit in construction inherited from the depression 1930's and wartime '40's.

Also, churches aren't gaining new members at anything like the explosive rate that prevailed during the '50's.

Finally, the massive population shift from the cities to the suburbs seems to have slowed down. Some suburbanites are moving back into the city.

The American Council for Judaism has lodged a sharp protest against the Catholic school building boom in the Washington area. It says the boom is a "refuge" for the running-mate, Sen. Barry Goldwater, a "half Jew."

In a letter to Miller, the council said:

"Although we do not question your good intentions, the term 'half Jew' implies a racial identification of the Jew which was used with disastrous results by the Nazis and which has been repudiated by reputable Jews everywhere. There is no 'Jewish race.' Judaism is a universal religion... elected by persons of different nationalities and races."

"While it is quite true that one of Sen. Goldwater's parents was of Jewish faith, the senator elected the Christian faith; the integrity of that election of faith should not be questioned."

The American Council for Judaism is a relatively small but articulate anti-Zionist organization which crusades for a strictly religious (as opposed to a racial or ethnic) definition of Jewishness.

Most of the large U.S. Jewish organizations—religious and secular—define Jewishness in both ethnic and religious terms.

Miller landed in the middle of this ancient quarrel because of a joking remark he made at the Republican convention in San Francisco. He quipped that since he was "half Jewish," Goldwater was "half Jewish" and half Protestant, thus making the GOP ticket must be a real bigot."

Goldwater is a life-long Episcopalian.

A priest-sociologist, the Rev. Raymond D. Polvin of Catholic University, Washington, D. C., "pinpointed the time Catholics stopped identifying themselves with the Jewish people as 'half Jews'."

Under a Ford foundation grant, the Rev. Father Polvin is conducting research to determine the charge that is any validity to the term "half Jew" and its use in the past.

He said that the term "half Jew" was used among Catholic girls—pursuing them to hear as many children as possible.

The Rev. Father Polvin believes that any such teaching overlooks the Catholic's responsibility to help maintain "a station of growth causing pressure on schools and other civic facilities," he says, "maybe we should start applauding the heroism of those who have built their families for the sake of building a better society for all concerned."

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—It may come as a surprise to Sen. Barry Goldwater but his most articulate Republican critic, now in effect an outcast of the party, is Henry Cabot Lodge.

Lodge, is taking his advice.

In his press conference, Lodge said he had several times before Goldwater called for a strengthening of the ties between the NATO allies.

That is just what Lodge is Marquis Childs trying to do in his current mission to western Europe.

Childs does not have arisen in NATO over American intentions in Viet Nam where for a year Lodge was ambassador. Does the United States intend to enlarge the war by carrying the fight to the north? Are Americans being happier? Will the presidential campaign force a change in policy in Southeast Asia?

These are the questions being asked within NATO and in allied nations. Childs is being sent to Europe to provide the answers.

Childs is not a member of the Johnson administration and his present intention is to take no part at all in the coming campaign. He is a senator, a statesman, and because he finds opportunity in the foreign policy field rewarding, Lodge accepted the arduous and often dangerous post of ambassador.

"Thank You" Party Held For Congress

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—President Johnson tossed a wing-ding of a "thank you" party for members of congress last night—but one of the senate's most prominent members passed up the fun.

Republican presidential candidate Barry M. Goldwater sent his regrets as did his running mate, Rep. William E. Miller, R., N. Y. Most of the house and senate GOP leaders were missing from the gala "salute to congress" on the south lawn of the White House.

But a number of other Republican lawmakers, as well as just about all of the Democrats, were on hand with their wives to hear this year's session of the congress extolled by Johnson.

"This session of congress has enacted more major legislation—met more national needs—disposed of more national issues—than any other session of this century or the last," the Chief Executive said.

There was colorful and topical entertainment in advance of Johnson's speech. Included were political campaign songs dating back to the early 1800s, sung and danced in hootenanny fashion on a huge outdoor stage with the U. S. Marine band playing accompaniment.

Burley Plans Special Class For Nursing

BURLEY, Aug. 20—The first training course in Casalia county under the manpower development and training act (MDTA) will begin Sept. 14, announced D. David Lewis, manager of the employment security agency here.

The course will train licensed practical nurses at Casalia Memorial hospital.

The purpose of MDTA, passed by congress in 1963, said Lewis, is to afford to unemployed people who can qualify the opportunity to acquire new skills, to alleviate the hardships of unemployment, reduce the costs of unemployment compensation and public assistance and to increase the nation's productivity.

A survey was made of possible training needs in Casalia county by the employment security agency. It was determined that a proposal should be submitted for the licensed practical nurse course.

A local manpower advisory committee has been formed to evaluate each MDTA proposal. The committee is composed of Zaida Peacock, secretary of the Casalia-Doka Labor council representing labor; E. R. Moore, superintendent of schools, representing education; business management representative is Kenneth Roth, manager of Alexander's men store; Russell Shockey represents agriculture, and public representative is James Rosenbaum, administrator of Casalia Memorial hospital.

Applications for the course may be obtained from Casalia Memorial hospital, stated Lewis. Applicants must be in good health, and over 18 years old. Heads of household may qualify for a weekly training allowance. Training expenses of students will be paid under MDTA.

Application for the course should be made right away, Lewis pointed out. Trainees will be selected within the next 10 days. The training will be conducted by local hospital and school district.

Service Is Held For Ex-Resident

Funeral services for John Clark Barlow, 54, were conducted in Salt Lake City Monday. Mr. Barlow died there Thursday.

He had been a radio announcer in Salt Lake City for 15 years, and was employed in radio stations in Boise and Twin Falls before moving to Salt Lake City. He was a graduate of Filer high school in 1946.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jerry Barlow, and four children, all Salt Lake City: his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Barlow, Jr., and Mrs. John C. Barlow, Sr.; and two sisters, Mrs. Martha Bonawitz, Twin Falls, and Mrs. Elizabeth Monour, Rupert.

News Around Idaho

BOISE, Aug. 20 (AP)—State aeronautics authorities worked yesterday about a plane from Louisville, Ky., carrying five persons that landed safely on a back-country field. Henry McCloskey, Jr., Louisville, the pilot, had indicated he planned to land at McCall Tuesday morning but didn't. Turbulent air made contact with the back-country fields impossible. But yesterday afternoon McCloskey radioed from the Johnson creek field that the party was safe. They flew to Idaho for a vacation stay in the back country.

ARCO, Aug. 20 (AP)—Law enforcement officers continued the detector tests today, as part of the investigation into the death of 17-year-old Forrest Kent Reed, Howe. His body was found last Friday after he disappeared from a party the night before. Butte County Sheriff Ken Johnson said yesterday five or six of the persons who were at the party were being questioned. "We haven't come up with anything that would indicate any provocation for murder," said Johnson.

LEWISTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Mrs. Irma Palmlund has been found innocent of a charge of practicing dentistry without a license. In an opinion written Aug. 14, Justice of the Peace John H. Maynard said the repair service operated by the Lewiston woman is "strictly mechanical" and that no doctor-patient relationship exists. Mrs. Palmlund was charged with violating state law because she made gum impressions of a patient in the process of relining dentures to make them fit snugly.

BOISE, Aug. 20 (AP)—Nicholas Bradie has filed an appeal in U. S. district court for rulings that have upheld his dismissal from the Glen Canyon dam construction project. Bradie was an electrician for the government from 1940 to 1962. But he was dismissed because officials of the department of interior, bureau of reclamation and the civil service commission, charged he had failed to tell them of back injuries he had suffered. The officials also said Bradie had refused to accept a change in his work assignment. On the other hand Bradie charges his injuries were only temporary and, according to a doctor, would clear up without difficulty. He also claims he was already doing the work that was requested by his superiors.

LEWISTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—The warden of the Idaho state penitentiary said here this week the state should have a new institution with a capacity of 1,500 inmates. He said he will ask for a grant from the federal housing and home finance administration which would pay for plans for the proposed penitentiary. He thought it should also have maximum, medium and minimum security sections. The present penitentiary near Boise holds 500 to 600 inmates. Gov. Robert E. Smylie has asked the state board of correction to look for a new penitentiary site.

BOISE, Aug. 20 (AP)—The Idaho Public Utilities commission has ordered the Idaho Power company to provide service to the Durada ranch area near Boise. The petition for electrical power was filed by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Durada and Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Morris. Three power line routes have been proposed, and the power company has been ordered to determine which of the three could be used for providing service.

BOISE, Aug. 20 (AP)—Idaho's youth camp will be one of eight which the forest service will operate under the administration's recently-passed anti-poverty program. Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has announced from Washington that the camps will operate for the next 30 days. John E. Micozragovich, supervisor of the Nez Perce forest, said yesterday plans are not complete but tentatively 100 boys from age 16 to 21 will work at conservation projects over and above regular forest projects. He said the Idaho camp will be located about 30 miles east of Kootenai on the Selway river.

BOISE, Aug. 20 (AP)—The Boise Cascade corporation plans to purchase Associated Stationers Supply company, Inc., pending approval of Associated's stockholders. The directors of the company have approved the sale and the stockholders will vote on it Sept. 8. President H. V. Hunsberger of Boise Cascade said Associated stockholders would receive one share of Boise Cascade stock for each share of Associated stock. Associated has warehouses in several southern and eastern cities and operates Horder's Stationery Stores, Inc., which has eight stores in the Chicago metropolitan area.

Midsection Of U. S. Has Drought

By The Associated Press

There is a drought in the nation's midsection.

Just how bad depends on the person you talk to and where he lives.

Crops planted early did pretty well. Those planted late are struggling. Livestock is running out of pastures. Some townfolks are conserving dwindling water supplies. Fishermen find waters mired by lowered streams and lakes.

The government has released soil bank acreage in wide areas to keep cattle from being dumped on the market for lack of feed. On the plus side, wheat farmers who have just about finished their major effort for the year turned in pretty fair crops. Early corn is going to be good in most places and alfalfa has been through two cuttings.

Spring rains were generally good, clear through June. Then July turned hot and dry, climaxing early in August with a heat wave that shot temperatures in many sections higher than they had been since the real drought of the mid 30's. After this came a cool spell that in Missouri and Kansas dropped the temperature some 20 degrees below normal for this time of the year.

Idahoan Killed In Washington Auto Accident

COLFAX, Wash., Aug. 20 (AP)—A Plummer, Ida., man was fatally injured yesterday after the pickup truck in which he was riding slid in loose gravel and rolled over.

The man, Albert Teatly, was taken to St. Ignace hospital following the accident. He died about 2 p.m.

Washington state troopers said the accident occurred on the Albion road. The name of the driver was not released.

The truck was going around a right hand curve when the driver apparently lost control.

Two on Train Killed by Flying Beam

KINGMAN, Ark., Aug. 20 (AP)—Two persons were killed today when an I-beam tumbled off a passing freight train and hurled like a spear through the window of the Santa Fe Super Chief passenger train.

First reports were that five persons were injured, including a young girl, trapped beneath the beam.

The identity of the dead and injured was not available immediately.

Conductor F. E. Young described the accident this way: "The I-beam probably jostled loose from this passing freight train. It struck the engine, a starting blow, then started a pinwheel and went through the window of a chair car."

Young said the Super Chief was about 30 minutes out of Needles, Calif., when the accident occurred. It had departed from Los Angeles and was east-bound.

The train continued into Kingman, the beam protruding from the side of the car.

The young girl still was trapped by the beam when the train reached Kingman, about 15 minutes later.

Welding torches were used to cut the beam from the train. It resumed its trip about 7:30 a.m. MDT.

Stocks

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—The stock market closed sharply lower today at the end of a sluggish session.

A wide range of blue chips depressed the averages. In the afternoon, however, a rally in the auto labor negotiators was a factor.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4 million shares compared with 4.17 million Wednesday.

Most was down more than nine points. Union Carbide and two others of a point or so were the only gainers. General Motors, Chrysler, Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, U.S. Steel and Xerox, all lost ground.

Auto Products slipped about 1/2 point, along with Monsanto.

Following the trend, Calgon ran about two points.

Alcohol and cigarette stocks were higher on balance. Modest gains were scored by American Airlines, United Air Lines, Eastern American Tobacco, T. W. Horton and Lorillard.

Trading on the American Stock Exchange turned mixed after an early rise.

Red News Agency Carries Rosy Picture of Soviet Ways

MOBIL, Aug. 20 (AP)—The Soviet news agency Tass often presents a rosy picture of the way things are going in the Soviet Union, while emphasizing troubles the rest of the world is having. Although paper here frequently publishes stories about Soviet crime, corruption, bureaucratic inefficiency and other domestic problems, such items seldom find their way onto the Tass wire. On a typical day, for example, Moscow daily papers published stories on the following subjects: Soviet youth marching, the don't work. Law controls that encourage entrepreneurs of state property. Complaints about apathy press coverage of new technical developments. Factory directors who force workers to put in overtime without pay in order to fulfill monthly plan targets. A young man convicted on charges of illegally selling study aids to students preparing for university entrance exams. Poor organization of working hours of Soviet army officers. Criticism of army officers' behavior. And two slinging anti-alcoholism pieces. None of the stories appeared on the Tass domestic or foreign wires. However, similar items from Western news agencies are eagerly passed through the agency's two-way communication system to make up the bulk of its foreign news coverage. The government-run news agency also gives heavy play to Western labor strikes, accidents and disasters and political troubles. Tass fulfills its assigned role as chronicler of the Soviet march to communism by churning out a seemingly endless stream of glowing reports of new economic and social achievements. Favorable comment about the Soviet Union by foreign visitors and tourists is transmitted in bulk quantities on the overseas wire to foreign subscribers. One of Tass' main functions is laying down the latest Kremlin line on important policy matters in the form of Tass statements, commentaries, and party-government documents. Tass, therefore, is carefully studied abroad for switches or modifications of Soviet policies. The agency now is engaged in an all-out assault on the communist-chinese devoting news articles daily to polemical attacks on Peking. It also appears to be attempting to counter the Soviet and Western charges of Soviet imperialism and colonialism with a spate of pieces intended to improve foreigners with the progress made in the central Asian republics. In recent years, Tass' dispatches have made determined efforts to strangle the communist line on the Tass wire with considerably less delay than formerly. These reports usually are short and factual and without comment. Later, when the Kremlin policy line has been laid down, expanded stories containing the official Soviet viewpoint are moved on the wire.

Austria Has Token Strike On Sausages

SAALBURG, Austria, Aug. 20 (AP)—A token strike protesting the high price of sausages halted mail, telephone and bus service in the town of Saalburg yesterday for an hour in Salzburg yesterday. Salzburg's "sausage strike" was called following a breakdown of talks between union and provincial government leaders on the high price of knockwurst, as well as other sausages and meats. The union representatives demanded the government of Salzburg province order cuts in prices of meats which have risen sharply in the past few weeks. The prices have aroused widespread discontent among workers, with the high cost of their staple "sausage" the chief cause for irritation. The discontent had caused a brief strike of a group of building workers at a bridge site here yesterday. The sausage row comes at a time when Salzburg is crowded with tourists here for the musical festival. A spokesman for the provincial government said it was feared the communists may try to use the strikes for their own ends.

Music Teacher Is Signed for Wendell School

WENDLE, Aug. 20—Omar P. Jones has signed a contract with Wendell school district No. 233 as vocal and instrumental instructor for the elementary and high school music department for the coming school year. Jones has been teaching music for the past eight years at Forest Grove, Ore., in an unincorporated district. Previously to this he was at Union high school, Sandy, Ore. He also has taught in Iowa, South Dakota and Wyoming. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees in music from Pacific university. Jones is married and has three children, one daughter in college, and one son in high school and one daughter in grade school.

Mrs. Kennedy Flies to N. Y. After Vacation

ROME, Aug. 20 (AP)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy flew for New York today, ending a two-week European vacation. Townspeople of Porto Cervo, on the Argentario coast peninsula, lined the village streets to wave and throw kisses as the former U. S. first lady headed south for Rome's Fiumicino airport. The president's widow came daily from the villa after finishing private yacht with friends along the Dalmatian coast of Yugoslavia.

Miss Packham, Funkhouser Say Nuptial Vows

FAIRFIELD, Aug. 20—LaFriel Packham, daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Edward L. Packham, Fairfield, and Michael C. Funkhouser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Funkhouser, Gooding, were united in marriage July 18. The evening ceremony was performed by the bride's father in the Fairfield LDS church.

The bride wore a gown of white brocade satin styled with a fitted bodice with a row of tiny self-covered buttons down the back, a scooped neckline and long full pointed sleeves. The full pleated skirt was floor-length. Her elbow-length veil of illusion net was held by white satin roses. She carried a bouquet of deep pink roses with cascades of matching pink ribbon.

Valera Packham, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a street-length dress of peach crystalline designed similar to that of the bride. She had a corsage of pink and blue carnations.

Pat Funkhouser, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mrs. Dean Funk was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas Cox. Don Baker was organist.

The bride's mother wore a black and white foray dress with dark accessories enhanced with a corsage of pink and blue carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece blue brocade suit with white accessories and a corsage of white and orchid carnations.

The reception was held at the church. Baskets of colored pennies were arranged by Mrs. Arnold Hubbard and Mrs. Dean Funk. A four-tiered pink and white cake and bouquets of peonies were centered on the bride's table covered with white. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Clair Breinholt, Nampa. Gift giving was arranged by Mrs. Cox. Linda Jones, Nalda Packham and Susan Funkhouser, Renee Funkhouser and Bobby Jo Funkhouser, Mrs. Phil Brackenbury was in charge of the guest book. William T. Stewart was master of ceremonies for the program.

For traveling, the bride wore a brown suit with white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Camas county high school. The bride attended Ricks college and Brigham Young university. The bridegroom is employed by McGraw Hill company, Corral and Hagerman.

All eight grandparents of the newlyweds were present. Out-of-town guests attended from California, Oklahoma, Salt Lake City, Bountiful, Preston, Boise, Wendell, Gooding and Jerome.

Reelection of Bever Was GOP Surprise

By RICHARD CHARNOCK

BOISE, Aug. 20 (AP)—Reelection of George Bever, Twin Falls, to the post of GOP chairman in the eight-county Magic Valley district caught some Republican insiders by surprise.

Bever had been marked for political oblivion by some of the professionals after the Republican state assembly in Idaho Falls and his defeat as district chairman was planned as the coup de grace.

He had taken part last February in the Lincoln day executive committee meeting at Boise in which both the governor and the state chairman were outmaneuvered in selection of committee chairmen for the state assembly.

Then, in June at Idaho Falls, he cast his lot with a losing effort to replace Harley Markham, Tetonville, with Roland Wilber, Lewiston, as national committee man. He and 16 others in his district voted for Wilber while the other 46 voted for Markham, a close friend of Gov. Robert M. Smylie.

The word at Idaho Falls after the state assembly was that Bever was "through" in GOP circles. Smylie wanted no time, in fact, in removing him from the veterans affairs commission when he returned to Boise from the Idaho Falls gathering.

So when Bever won a 15-9 vote of confidence at Twin Falls the other night at the reorganizational meeting for the district, more than one Republican was astonished.

Even the day of the district meeting after the GOP proxy had passed confidence that Charles Marshall, Jerome, would be the new district chairman. They talked, in fact, like it was cut and dried.

But somebody, it seems, forgot to read the script. And now the big question making the rounds is whether Bever's reelection is a portent of things to come in other districts where the governor and some of his friends would like to see some changes made.

Nobody seems quite certain what happened in the Magic Valley—or, at least, how it happened. There are a number of theories, of course, and a rumor or two.

One theory is that Bever simply went out into the counties in his district after the state assembly and "did his homework." This is Bever's explanation.

"I contacted various people in the eight counties," he said. "They know me. I'm no stranger. They know me and my background."

Another theory is that Bever's resurgence of strength in the district—which obviously was at a low ebb in Idaho Falls if you look at the vote for national committee man—came from a backlash of reaction from the state assembly.

Republicans both in the Wilber and in the Markham camps have been unhappy over tactics that were used by both sides in the fight over the committee man post. There are some within the party who believe that, in the Magic Valley at least, the backlash worked for Bever and those who had unsuccessfully tried to oust Markham.

Whether this is a feeling shared elsewhere in the state remains to be seen. But you may get an indication by what happens when the counties in the Panhandle district of the far north and those in the eastern Idaho district around Idaho Falls hold district reorganization meetings.

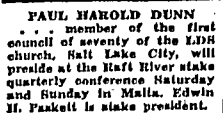

Beyond the immediate problem of party control, however, is the problem of party solidarity. After Bever's reelection everybody put out statements about "harmony" and "unity" in the party and the need for togetherness in the election campaign ahead.

"It's my desire to work with all the county and state officers and elect a complete Republican ticket from the county level right up to Harry Goldwater," Bever said. "I want to work with everybody. I'm not in a fight. They were trying to unseat me and I was just trying to keep a job. I want to fight the Democrats." It takes two to make a quarrel and Bever, Smylie and others in the party know this. But quarreling is, in itself, the sum and substance of politics. If there weren't different viewpoints there wouldn't be two political parties.

And while politicians sometimes kiss and make up it's often just a postponement rather than the end of the quarrel. Sometimes you can find some telltale lipstick planted on the collar.

Speakers Are Reported for Malta Confab

MALTA, Aug. 20—Elder Paul H. Dunn, member of the first council of seventy of the LDS church, Salt Lake City, will preside at the Malta River stake quarterly conference Saturday and Sunday at Malta.

Also attending will be Elder Vernon J. LeeMaster, member of the Sunday school general board; Elder Ross J. Taylor and Velma Harvey, representing the YWMA and YWMA.

General sessions of the conference will be held at 10 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Stake President Edwin H. Packer.

Elder Dunn has served since 1962 as coordinator of the LDS institute of religion in southern California and began his association with the church's educational system 16 years earlier in 1946 as a seminary teacher in Los Angeles.

Elder LeeMaster is prominent in Utah music circles and works with the Sunday school general board and is an executive on the Great Salt Lake City Scout council. He has served as missionary in the Northwestern U. S. and has been active in the auxiliary organizations of the church.

Miss Harvey, a graduate of the LDS Business college, is employed as a secretary at Elder Bruce R. McConkie of the council of seventy. She served as a stake missionary.

Special meetings for Sunday school and MIA leaders will be held Saturday at Malta.

Wendell Will Start Classes On Aug. 31

WENDELL, Aug. 20—Wendell schools will begin Aug. 31, reports Supt. Ray Turner. School will be dismissed for Labor day, Sept. 7.

Registration dates have been set for Aug. 24-27 for high school students. Elementary pupils and junior high students will register Aug. 31.

School will dismiss early the first day of school, with buses leaving at noon.

The hot lunch program will begin Sept. 1, and prices will be one dollar for five lunches for grades one through six, if bought at one time or 25 cents per individual lunch, and 25 cents for grades seven through 12 and 30 cents for adults.

Registration fees for elementary students and junior high students will be $2.50, and $7, plus $1 or $2 depending upon the class and materials used. One dollar will be refunded in all grades providing books are in satisfactory condition at the end of the school year.

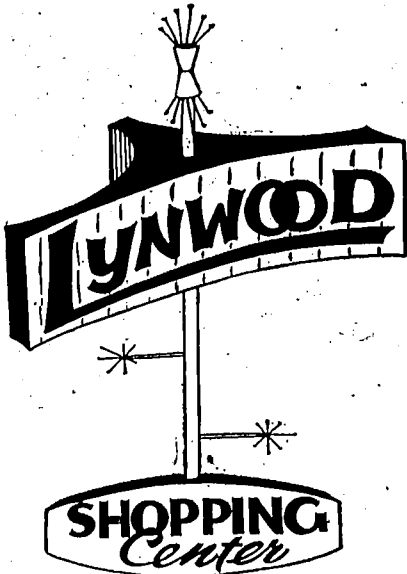

It is recommended that each student should have an insurance policy, costing $1.50 or $2.75 according to the policy taken.

Registration dates for freshmen will be Aug. 27 at the high school from 9:30 a. m. until noon. Sophomores will register the same day from 1:30 until 4 p. m. Juniors will register from 9:30 a. m. to 12 noon Aug. 28. Seniors will register from 1:30 p. m. to 4 p. m. the same day.

Principals of the schools are George W. Rogers, high school, and Arlin C. Dennis, elementary. Faculty members in the elementary school include Marilyn Moore, Thelma Webb, Rosemary Lawton, Colleen Otton, Edna Mae Kirkpatrick, Ann Curry, Jeanne Powell, Warren Taylor, Gracie Martin, Beana Stevenson, Ruth Gates, Thelma Vaughn, Vera Hansen, and Theresa Dennis.

Junior high teachers include Iris Coffman, Ella Mae Parker, Bonnie Trueman, Harrison Barrow and John Trueman. High school faculty members include Mrs. Annette Eaton, speech and English III; Robert Taylor, algebra, geometry, business arithmetic; Edward Otton, chemistry, physics, advanced arithmetic; Mrs. Hazel Lawton, economics; H. S. Lamb, government, Spanish; Mrs. Francis Lamb, English IV, library, journalism; Bruce Frooman, vocational agriculture.

M. L. Gates, U. S. history, biology, coach; Mrs. Janet Tool, English I and II; Omar P. Rose, vocal and instrumental, elementary and high school.

Murphy Has Prediction Of Sales Tax

NOISE, Aug. 20 (U)—State Sen. Jack Murphy, R., Lincoln, in an unfamiliar role as governor of Idaho, yesterday predicted a better reception for a sales tax in the 1955 legislature without speculating on whether it will pass.

"One thing is certain," said Murphy. "The state must curtail its increased budgets each biennium or seek out and find new sources of revenue. There are no alternatives."

"There is a change in climate in the senate toward the sales tax," he said. "Whether it is changed enough depends on who is elected. Some senators who voted no last time have told me a sales tax was absolutely necessary to finance state government."

The sales tax passed the house in 1953 but died in the senate, considered the only barrier to its approval in 1955.

Girl, 4, Dies After Fir Tree Falls on Her

TACOMA, Aug. 20 (U)—Four-year-old Allene Blaw was injured fatally yesterday when she ran into the path of a falling fir tree being cut down by her older brother and sister.

The injured girl showed no pulse and was not breathing when taken to Madigan General Hospital. Doctors revived her, but she died later from extensive head injuries.

ACTING GOVERNOR, Sen. Jack Murphy, R., Lincoln, gets a big stack of papers from H. A. Scheideman, assistant to Gov. Robert E. Smylie. Murphy, senate president pro-tem, is third in line and took over because both Smylie and Lieut. Gov. William E. Dreyer were out of state. (AP wirephoto)

President's Money May Become Issue

ROSLYN, N. Y., Aug. 20 (U)—Republican vice presidential candidate William E. Miller strongly hinted yesterday that President Johnson's financial holdings may become a campaign issue.

Miller, campaigning across Long Island, was asked about a White House announcement that Johnson's family net worth was estimated at nearly 3.5 million dollars.

"There might be a serious question about the integrity of a man who has been in public office 30 years and has acquired a fortune of 14 million dollars mostly in connection with a federal agency," Miller said.

He apparently was referring to a Life magazine estimate this week that Johnson's net worth totaled about 14 million dollars, most of it from the Austin, Tex., radio and television stations owned by the Johnson family.

Johnson's accountants released a statement Wednesday that the net capital of the Johnson family, including the President, Mrs. Johnson and the two Johnson daughters, totaled $3,404,000.

Talks Slated

WENDELL, Aug. 20—The Rev. John Blins, Twin Falls, retired pastor of the Methodist church, will conduct the 9:30 a. m. worship service at the Wendell Methodist church Sunday in the absence of the Rev. Edward Hargreaves, regular pastor, while he is on vacation.

The Rev. Mr. Blins also will fill the pulpit at the Hagerman church at 11 a. m. Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Hargreaves will return for the Aug. 30 worship service at both churches.

Goldwater Is Ready to Debate on TV

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (U)—Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater was described today as willing to face President Johnson in a television series proposed by the National Broadcasting company.

Goldwater's press secretary, Paul Wagner, said the Arizona senator wouldn't be interested in a format that would have the presidential contenders appear separately.

Johnson was silent on the NBC invitation to put him and Goldwater — jointly or separately — on the air in a full hour series of

"Meet the Press" television program.

NBC board chairman Robert W. Barnhart outlined the offer in identical telegrams to Goldwater and Johnson. He said a plan was designed to submit for actual television debate. Goldwater could not be reached for comment, but Wagner said the Republican nominee "would accept on a face-to-face basis only."

$330,000 LDS Ward Chapel Is Being Built in Rupert

RUPERT, Aug. 20 — Work is under way on a new $330,000 LDS chapel being constructed on South Fifth and F streets in Rupert.

The new ward chapel will be the meeting place for the third and fourth wards of the Minidoka stake when completed. Third ward members presently are meeting at the Rupert ward chapel located on Eighth and B streets and members of the fourth ward are meeting in a ward chapel on Second and A streets which is antiquated and inadequate, church leaders say.

The new chapel is being built under the direction of the general building program of the LDS church with offices in Salt Lake City. All labor on the new building will be furnished locally, mostly through voluntary measures.

The building will have an area of 17,500 square feet including 23 classrooms, chapel, cultural hall, junior Sunday school, Relief society room and three bishop's offices.

The new construction will also feature four outside entrance doors. The outside of the building will be white brick veneer. Two full-time LDS missionaries from California are working on the construction under the direction of professional construction workers, and are being housed with various families of the two wards. At the present time Lee Doerman is staying with the William Quigley family and John Nohd is staying at the Albert Harrison residence.

According to church officials the completion date is undetermined. They hope to get the roof on before the weather gets bad and if this can be done, work will be able to go on more rapidly.

The majority of the work will be on a voluntary basis, and after completion of the harvesting of crops more man hours will be put in on the construction.

Creation of Gem State's First National Park Asked

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—A senate interior subcommittee has been asked to create Idaho's first national park—the Nez Perce national historical park to portray the history of that Indian tribe.

Creation of the park—it would cost $340,000 to buy about 1,200 acres and $1,287,000 to build tourist facilities—was urged by Sen. Frank Church and Rep. Compton L. White, Jr., Idaho Democrats, and Clark Stratton, assistant to the director of the national park service.

In addition to the 1,200 acres, Stratton said the park service planned to obtain scenic easements to an additional 5,100 acres.

This would restrict the use of lands by their owners and ban billboards and such, Stratton said.

The proposed park in the Idaho Panhandle would portray early Nez Perce Indian culture, the tribe's war of 1877 with U.S. cavalry troops, the Lewis and Clark expedition through the area in the early 19th century, fur trading, gold mining, logging and missionary activity.

A similar bill is before the house interior committee.

Final congressional action on the proposal is not expected this year. At the request of Sen. Len B. Jordan, R., Id., a senate subcommittee member, Chairman Alan Bible, D., Nev., promised to hold hearings in Idaho this fall.

In his testimony, Church traced the history of the Nez Perce Indians. He said the bill, introduced by himself and Jordan, would provide a new type of national park.

"Dedicated literally to the Nez Perce country," said Church.

He said within a comparatively small area bounded by the Clearwater and Salmon rivers occurred the Lewis and Clark visit, the discovery of gold and the Nez Perce Indian war.

BOISE, Aug. 19 (AP)—Forest experts from Canada and the western United States discussed experiments and developments in tree seedling Wednesday as they opened a two-day meeting of the western forestry and conservation association.

Negotiations Are Broken, Union Heads Call Meet

SPOKANE, Aug. 20 (AP)—Officials of the Washington association of Plumbers and Pipefitters union Wednesday called membership meetings Thursday for a strike vote after negotiations with contractors broke down.

William Linahan, Spokane, secretary-treasurer of the state association, said representatives of the union and more than 600 plumbers and heating contractors met separately Wednesday morning with Federal Mediator Alvin Peterson in Seattle.

Linahan said neither side had changed positions and talks were discontinued.

The association has jurisdiction over about 4,000 men in Washington, eastern Oregon and northern Idaho.
